SOCIAL WELFARE
AND NUTRITIOUS MEAL PROGRAMME DEPARTMENT

CITIZEN'S CHARTER – 2013

CHAPTER - 1

INTRODUCTION

The implementation of schemes for the welfare of women, children and aged is done by the Social Welfare and Nutritious Meal Programme Department through the Directorates of Social Welfare, Social Defence and the Integrated Child Development Services Scheme. This Department also functions as a nodal agency for various Social Security Programmes implemented through the Revenue Department.

2.The Directorate of Social Welfare implements a number of programmes for the welfare of women including the Marriage Assistance Schemes. The Directorate also runs Service Homes where the destitute and deserted women can stay with security and at the same time, pursue education and vocational training. Working Women's Hostels where women can stay at affordable rates are also run by the Directorate of Social Welfare. Training and self-employment of women are thrust areas and the large number of Women Co-operative Societies run by the Directorate provide avenues for women to be self-reliant. The welfare of the vulnerable group of transgenders and programmes specially designed for them are also under the purview of the Directorate of Social Welfare.

3. Two flagship schemes of the Social Welfare and Nutritious Meal Programme Department relate to nutrition security for children. Puratchi Thalaivar MGR Nutritious Meal Programme provides hot and tasty cooked variety meal to 53.52 lakh school children from Standard I to X. The Integrated Child Development Services Scheme which is implemented by the Commissioner of Integrated Child Development Services Scheme, is a comprehensive package for children of the age group 0-6 years including supplementary nutrition, hot and tasty cooked meal, health care and pre-school education. Pregnant and lactating mothers are also provided with supplementary nutrition besides health education and awareness. The scheme has also brought into its fold adolescent girls to look after their nutrition, health and training needs.

4. The Directorate of Social Defence is implementing many schemes, particularly focusing on children in need of care and protection and children in conflict with law. The Directorate also implements schemes for women in moral danger.

5. The Social Welfare and Nutritious Meal Programme Department implements and monitors several social legislations for the care, welfare and protection of children, women and senior citizens. These include, the Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961, Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005, Immoral Traffic (Prevention) Act, 1956, Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2000, Prohibition of Child Marriage Act, 2006 and Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act, 2007.

CHAPTER – 5

INTEGRATED CHILD DEVELOPMENT SERVICES SCHEME

5.1. INTEGRATED CHILD DEVELOPMENT SERVICES SCHEME

Today's children are tomorrow's nation builders. Today's adolescent girls are tomorrow's healthy mothers. They are the assets to the country. Having this as objective the Department of ICDS is functioning towards the goal of "Malnutrition free Tamilnadu". With this objective the Tamilnadu has launched in 1975, the Integrated Child Development Services (ICDS), This is the only major national programme that addresses the needs of children under the age of six years. This charter seeks to provide a frame work which enables to our users to know different services that are available in Anganwadi Centres. The main broad objectives of the programme are to improve the health, nutrition and development of children. It offers health, nutrition and hygiene education to mothers, non-formal pre-school education to children aged 3 to 6, supplementary feeding for all children and pregnant and nursing mothers, growth monitoring and promotion services, and links to primary healthcare services.

The Government of Tamil Nadu has taken decisive steps to address the nutrition and health needs of children below six years, pregnant women, lactating mothers and adolescent girls. With a strong push towards universalization of the ICDS programme, ICDS services have been steadily extended to serve unreached habitations, under-served populations and hard to reach areas of the State.

The scheme is implemented through 49,499 Child Centres (Anganwadi Centres) and 4,940 Mini centres, totalling 54,439 centres functioning under 434 ICDS Projects. Out of 434 projects, 47 projects are in urban, 2 projects are in tribal and 385 projects are in rural areas.

5.2 MISSION STATEMENT :

Our Mission is to enhance the Nutrition status, health and overall quality of life for the Adolescent Girls, pregnant women and lactating mothers and children below six years by providing them with adequate supply of Weaning Food, Hot Cooked meals, Training for Adolescent Girls and pre school non formal education to the children below 6 years and providing Noon meal to the Old Age pensioners.

Implementation of Centrally sponsored schemes like KishoriSakthiYojana and SABLA for self employment programme to the Adolescent Girls.

Creating awareness of the various policies and programmes of the Government through conducting Dramas, Exhibitions, Melas, Vizhas and ChittukuruviSedhiTheriyumamagazine etc and dissemination meets.

5.3. OBJECTIVES OF ICDS

The objectives of the ICDS Scheme are :

- 1) Lay foundation for the proper psychological, physical and social development of the child
- 2) Improve nutritional and health status of children below six years
- 3) Reduce incidence of mortality, morbidity, malnutrition and school dropouts

5.9 INFORMATION, EDUCATION & COMMUNICATION (IEC)

IEC is an inbuilt component of ICDS. IEC activities promote Health and Nutrition services and enhance the credibility and image of Child Centres (Anganwadi centre). IEC aims at improving maternal and childcare practices, attitudes encouraging community participation and motivating community to support ICDS services.

The ultimate objective of IEC is to bring about positive behavioural change in health and nutritional practices among individual, family, community and thereby facilitate reduction of malnutrition in the community. IEC, being an integral part of the programme is implemented in close coordination with the activities of other components of ICDS.

5.10. TRAINING

Success of the ICDS implementation depends on the efficiency of the field workers namely Anganwadi Worker, Anganwadi Helper, Supervisors and Child Development Programme Officers. The Training component takes the responsibility of imparting skill and knowledge with experience in working with the community and the target groups, namely children, pregnant and lactating women and adolescent girls.

Under the training component the State Government runs, the State Training Institute at Taramani to train, Child Development Programme Officers and Grade I Supervisors. They in turn impart training to the Anganwadi Workers and Helpers at block level. The Middle level training centre which is run by Indian Council of Child Welfare which provides training to the Grade-II Supervisors. The Anganwadi Worker and Anganwadi Helper are provided training at block level by the trainers (supervisorGr-1) in the block.

The training is a continuous process which is supported by Government of India to the tune of 90% which is sanctioned after approval of State Training Approval Plan (STRAP)

5.11 SCHEMES FOR ADOLESCENT GIRLS
