2. G.O.(Ms).No. 31, AD&TW (ADW-2) Dept., Dated 03.05.2018.
3. From the Director, Tribal Welfare Letter No.TD/D1/7786/2017, dated 20.09.2018 and 15.10.2018.

ORDER:

In the Government Order first read above, Financial Sanction was accorded for repair and renovation works to Tribal Welfare Boys' Hostel, Gomuki Dam, Villupuram district at a total cost of Rs.50,20,000/-.

2. In the Government order second read above, Financial Sanction was accorded for repair and renovation works to Tribal Welfare Girls' Hostel, Gomuki Dam, Villupuram district at a total cost of Rs.35,75,000/-.

3. In the letter third read above, the Director, Tribal Welfare has stated that while commencing the above works its observed that two septic tanks of both girls and boys Hostels are found beyond repairable conditions and it is in very deteriorated conditions. Hence, it is proposed to build two new septic tanks for boys and girls hostel by considering the unhygienic conditions prevailing in the premises. The weathering portions in all the hostels are to be re-laid in order to arrest the seepage of further rain water in to the buildings. The hostel blocks were constructed in the year 1989-1990 and no repair works were taken up for weathering as on date. The repair works proposed in the hostel will not get fulfilled unless the relaying of weathering is done to maintain structural safety of buildings. The Director, Tribal Welfare has also stated that the costs of building materials in steel, sand, cement have increased more than 10% from 2017-2018. Therefore, it is unable to carry out the following works from the sanctioned amount in the Government Orders. Hence, he has requested to sanction of additional amount of Rs.21.70 lakh to execute the works.

4. The Government, after careful examination, have decided to accept the proposal of the Director, Tribal Welfare and accord Financial Sanction for construction of septic tanks and weathering works in hostel blocks at Government Tribal
