Higher Education (J1) Department

G.O.Ms.No.26
Dated:13-2-2003

ORDER:-

Presently, admission to the professional institutions is being done through the single Window system of admission for which both the marks obtained by the students at +2 level and the marks obtained in the entrance examination are taken into account.

2. The managements of the unaided professional institutions at the meeting held by the Government on 3.2.2003 have requested that single window system of admission may be made based on +2 marks only.

3. The Government examined the request of the managements of the unaided professional institutions and have decided that the request need not be accepted. They accordingly direct that the existing procedure of conducting the single window system of admission to professional institutions, need not be changed and the same shall continue.
