4. From the Director of Medical Education, Kilpauk, Chennai- 10, Letter No.6406/PME/3/2008, dated.14.2.2008.

Order:-

The Community College system in India aims at the empowerment of the disadvantaged through appropriate skills development leading to gainful employment thus making a qualitative difference in the lives of the urban poor, rural poor, tribal poor and women in collaboration with local industrial establishments and potential employers, voluntary organizations after taking into account the opportunities available for employment and self employment in the local area. This has been included in the Eleventh Five Year Plan for establishment and funding recommended by the Ministry of Human Resource Development and University Grants Commission.

2. The Hon'ble Minister for Higher Education during the demand for Higher Education (2007-2008) in the Tamil Nadu Legislative Assembly has announced that the Government will encourage the establishment of Community Colleges and take steps for their integration with the University System by providing Vertical Mobility to those who complete their study in the Community Colleges.

3. The following proposal for implementation of Community Colleges in the State has been arrived at tentatively, so as to provide vertical mobility to such candidates to enable them to pursue higher studies in affiliated college and universities as follows:-

Level – I:

Below 10th Std. candidates (School drop-outs) : They are eligible for admission in certificate programmes in Community Colleges with 16 credits – 6 month duration

After completion of the above Certificate Course, students can take up a bridge course of 16 credits in Community Colleges, which will make them eligible to pursue courses for which 10th Std pass is minimum qualification.

Level – II:

10th Std. pass candidates : They are eligible to take one year Diploma Programme of 32 credits in Community Colleges.

After completion of the above Diploma Course, students can take up a Bridge course of 32 credits, which will make them eligible to pursue courses for which +2 pass is the minimum qualification.

Therefore they become eligible to enter into first year Degree Course in affiliated colleges of Conventional Universities / Open Universities and Distance Education Institutions.

4. The views of the Vice-Chancellors of the Universities under the control of Higher Education Department and University Grants Commission have been obtained. Considering the fact that Tamil Nadu Open University is presently offering different programmes of study through Distance Education Mode and only, Tamil Nadu Open University will be offering the Open University courses (Non-formal Distance Education programme) to all those who have completed 18 years, the Government considered that the Tamil Nadu Open University will give recognition to Community Colleges for offering job oriented programmes and the Tamil Nadu Open University will be empowered to frame Norms, Rules and Regulations to maintain quality and standard in the Community College System.

5. Accordingly, the Registrar, Tamil Nadu Open University has submitted proposals for the establishment of Community Colleges system in Tamil Nadu in Polytechnics, Industries, Hospitals, Hotels and Voluntary Organisations.

6. The Government have examined the proposals of Registrar, Tamil Nadu Open University in detail and they have decided to establish the community colleges in Polytechnics, Industries, Hotels and in Voluntary Organisations excluding the scheme in Hospitals. They accordingly issue the following orders for the establishment of community colleges in Tamil Nadu:-

(i) Following types of community colleges can be established.

(a). POLYTECHNICS:

Polytechnics can start the Community Colleges in their own campus itself in the specialized vocational programmes required by the industries in their locality for the development of skills, utilizing the infrastructure and faculty available in the Polytechnics in the evenings and weak end holidays. The practical training can be offered in the workshops / laboratories, related to the skills.

(b).INDUSTRIES:

Industries can start Community Colleges to offer courses related to their area of operation, so that the skilled labours working in the Industry without proper qualifications and certifications can take up these courses for the enhancement of their skills and for certification. In this connection, they have to attend only theory classes during the evening or week ends in the Community Colleges, set up by the Industries within their premises. Practicals can be exempted for them, as they are already working in the same trade in the Industry.

(c). HOTELS :

Hotels with 100 rooms and restaurants in semi urban / rural & 150 rooms in Municipal Corporation area and 200 rooms with restaurants in Chennai can start the Community Colleges to offer courses related to the hotel industry for the enhancement of the skilled labour working in the industry for certification and also for the development of skills related to the Hotel Industry for the students in their locality. Both theoretical classes and practical training can be given in the hotel and the restaurants.

(d). VOLUNTARY ORGANIZATIONS (NGOS)

Voluntary Organizations, who have already established Community Colleges and offering skill development programme with industrial tie-up for providing practical training can also apply for recognition.

(ii) The non - industrial agencies should have a strong tie-up with industries, where internship and hands on experience will be provided and the evidence of tie-up should be submitted to Tamil Nadu Open University along with the application. No Community College other than Industries and Hotels shall be given recognition without industrial tie-up.

(iii) Tamil Nadu Open University will give recognition to Community Colleges for offering Job Oriented Programmes. The recognized Community Colleges will conduct any of the following Vocational Education Programmes offered by Tamil Nadu Open University.
