திருவள்ளூர் ஆண்டு 2039.

ORDER:

The Government of India have enacted the Right to Information Act, 2005 (Central Act 22 of 2005) to provide for setting up the practical regime of right to information for citizens to secure access to the information under the control of Public Authorities, in order to promote transparency and accountability in the working of every Public Authority.

2. As per sub-section (4) of section 24 of the Right to Information Act, 2005, nothing contained in the Act shall apply to such Intelligence and security organization being organizations established by the State Government as that Government may, from time to time, by notification in the Official Gazette specify.

3. The State Vigilance Commission and the Directorate of Vigilance and Anti-Corruption primarily deal with investigation into alleged corrupt activities of public servants. The investigations and subsequent actions culminate in disciplinary action or criminal action in the appropriate courts of law. Confidentiality and secrecy in certain cases requires to be maintained during the whole process from the initial stage upto filing of charge sheet in the court on the one hand and upto issue of final orders in the case of disciplinary proceedings. Revealing any information to any agency including the aggrieved person would be detrimental to the progress of the case. Of late, there has been a tendency on the part of some citizens to ask for a lot of information under the Right to Information Act, 2005. The Government feel that in vigilance cases giving information at the initial stages, investigation stages and even prosecution stages would lead to unnecessary embarrassment and will definitely hamper due process on investigation.

4. The Government have therefore decided to specify by notification in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette under sub-section (4) of section 24 of the Right to Information Act, 2005 (Central Act 22 of 2005) that the Right to Information Act, 2005 shall not apply to Tamil Nadu State Vigilance Commission and Directorate of Vigilance and Anti-Corruption organizations.

5. The following Notification will be published in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette:-
