3. From the Director of Co-operative Audit Letter No.RC.5349/89/PA3
Dated.26.6.1989.
4. From the Secretary, Tamil Nadu Public Service Commission Letter
No.4834/BA1/88 Dated.23.04.1990.

ORDER :

With a view to ensuring audit of all the Co-operative Societies independent of the Administrative Department, the Government in the orders read above, have ordered the creation of a separate Department of Co-operative Audit called the Department of Co-operative Audit and its head called the Director of Co-operative Audit. The entire department was placed under the control of the Finance Department as and Administrative Department of the Secretariat. The Director of Co-operative Audit started functioning with effect from 17.6.1981.

Since the office of the Director of Co-operative Audit is likely to continue for some more years to come and as getting the services of competent and suitable staff for this office from various departments has become difficult it is considered necessary to create separate cadre of staff for the office of the Director of Co-operative Audit and to frame adhoc rules for the various categories of posts in the Directorate. The Government accordingly frame adhoc rules for the posts of Junior Assistant, Steno-Typist and Typist in the Directorate of Co-operative Audit, Madras,
