In the G.O third read above, the Special Rules governing the post of Driver in the Department of Ex-servicemen's Welfare were issued inserting a new class namely Class LXXX in the Tamil Nadu General Subordinate Service. In Rule 3 of the said special rules, it has been indicated that the Director of Ex-servicemen's Welfare, Madras shall be the appointing authority. In the G.O. first read above, the Joint Director of Ex-servicemen's Welfare, was vested with the powers of appointments, transfers, posting of Assistants, Welfare Workers, Accountants, Junior Assistants, Steno-typists, Typists, Record Clerks and Drivers. Since the post of Joint Director has been revived, the Joint Director, Ex-servicemen's Welfare has sent proposals for amending the rule relating to the appointing authority indicating the Joint Director as appointing authority.

2. In the said Special Rules in Rule 4(b) relating to the method of recruitment by transfer, not less than five years service has been prescribed for the appointment of a Last Grade Government servant to the post of Driver. In G.O. Rt. No. 1077, Personnel and Administrative Reforms, dated 1.12.1987, it has been ordered, that the Office Assistants shall be promoted by transfer after completion of one year of service. Hence, the Joint Director, Ex-servicemen's Welfare has suggested amendment to this Rule also reducing the period of service from five years to one year.

3. The Government after careful consideration accept the proposals of the Joint Director of Ex-Servicemen's Welfare in paragraphs 1 and 2 above.
