ABSTRACT

Personnel and Administrative Reforms (FR-III) Department

G.O (Ms) No. 41

Dated: 28.04.2015

ORDER:

As per the Instructions under Rule 56(1)(c) of the Fundamental Rules 1922, “Whether a Government servant referred to under Fundamental Rules 56(1)(c) [not permitted to retire on his reaching the date of retirement] is fully exonerated or not, he shall be considered to have been on extension of service for the period from the date of retirement to the date of termination of the proceedings. During such an extension of service, the service rights which have accrued to the Government servant shall freeze at the level reached on the date of retirement. The salary during that period shall not exceed the pension, which has accrued to the Government servant, on that date”.

2. “As per Ruling-8 under Fundamental Rules 54-B, a Government servant, who has been placed under suspension, pending enquiry, should not be dismissed or removed or compulsorily retired from service retrospectively, from the date on which he was placed under suspension. The order in such a case should take effect only from the date of issue thereof”.

3. The date of effect of the punishment of ‘Compulsory Retirement’, in the case of final orders issued, after the date of superannuation, is not explicitly prescribed in the Fundamental Rules. Many clarifications from various Departments are being received in this Department, regarding date of effect of Compulsory Retirement, in the cases of final orders issued as ‘Compulsory Retirement’, after the date of Superannuation.

4. The Government, after careful consideration order that as the individuals who are not permitted to retire, on his reaching the date of retirement, are to be paid salary, not exceeding the pension, which has accrued to the Government servant on that date, in accordance with the provisions of Fundamental Rules, as stated above, until the date of termination of the disciplinary proceedings, the date of effect of the punishment of Compulsory Retirement, issued after the date of superannuation, in accordance with Fundamental Rules 56(1)(c) and Ruling-8 under Fundamental Rules 54-B, is the date of issue of Compulsory Retirement order.
5. Necessary amendment to the Fundamental Rules, by inserting the above order as Rule 56(1)(d), will be issued separately.
