3. In the letter third read above, the Unique Identification Authority of India has prescribed the following methods for the release of Aadhaar linked incentivisation grants by Ministry of Finance:-

- i) The total Aadhaar generated and the Below Poverty Line population covered by the States for Aadhaar generation would be placed by the States before Unique Identification Implementation Committee (UIDIC) for recommendation to Unique Identification Authority of India for release of Aadhaar linked incentivisation grant.
- ii) Unique Identification Authority of India Headquarters would check with Central ID Data Repository (CIDR) data as to the number of Aadhaar issued for the State so that the Below Poverty Line beneficiaries for whom the grant sought is within the Aadhaar number issued for the State. The data received from the State would be forwarded by Unique Identification Authority of India to the Ministry of Finance for release of Aadhaar linked incentivisation grant.

4. The Additional Chief Secretary/ Commissioner of Revenue Administration in his letter fourth read above has stated that at the State level, the Unique Identification Implementation Committee chaired by the Chief Secretary shall review the utilization of Aadhaar linked incentivisation grants. Hence, he has suggested that the State Level Advisory Board constituted in the Government Order second read above for coordinating activities relating to Unique Identification Authority of India (UIDAI) may be reconstituted. He has also stated that it was earlier proposed that the States would be headed by Unique Identification Authority Commissioners in the rank of Joint Secretary, Government of India, under Central Staffing Schemes and hence Unique Identification
