ORDER:

In the Government order first read above, among other things, it has been ordered that 60% of arrears of pensionary benefits to those who retired between 1-1-96 and 31-3-98 shall be paid to the pensioners after 5 years, i.e., in the year 2003 with interest as admissible to General Provident Fund. In the Government Order fifth read above and the Government letter sixth read above revised orders have been issued to the effect that arrears of DCRG and Encashment of Leave Salary in respect of employees, who retired between 1-1-96 and 31—3—98, shall be paid in three equal annual instalments together with interest as applicable to General Provident Fund starting from the financial year 2004—2005. Based on the above orders, the first instalment of arrears due has been paid to the pensioners in the financial year 2004—2005.

2) Several representations have been made by the various Pensioners' Associations and individual pensioners requesting payment of entire arrears of pensionary benefits in one lumpsum in the financial year 2005—2006.

3) In the Budget Speech, 2005—06, announcement has been made for the payment of the entire balance amount of 40% arrears in one instalment in the financial year 2005—2006 commencing from July, 2005. Accordingly, Government direct that the entire balance of 40% arrears of DCRG and Leave Salary shall be paid in one instalment along with interest as admissible to General Provident Fund for the financial year 2004—2005 in cash in the current financial year 2005—2006 itself commencing from the month of July, 2005.

4) These orders shall apply to the employees who have retired between 1-1-96 and 31-3-98.

5) The Heads of Departments / Heads of Offices shall work out the balance 40% of Gratuity arrears due by allowing interest upto 31—3—2005 and issue necessary proceedings for the payment of amount arrived in one lumpsum. Heads of Departments / Heads of Offices shall claim the entire balance amount of 40% arrears along with interest by presenting the bill in Pay and Accounts Offices / Treasury / Sub-Treasury and to make payment to the Pensioners. Similarly the encashment of leave salary if any, shall also be claimed and disbursed to the pensioners as above

6) The payment of Gratuity and leave salary arrears to all the pensioners should be completed on or before 31-8-2005 and a compliance report should be sent to Government in Finance Department in first week of September, 2005.

7) The arrear amount of Gratuity shall be debited to the head of account as already indicated in para—4 of the Government Order fifth read above.

8) However, the arrears amount of encashment of Leave salary shall be debited to the following head of account:--

“2071. Pension and other retirement benefits – 01. Civil – 115. Leave encashment benefits – I. Non-plan – AA. Encashment of leave salary of Government servants at the time of retirement / death or termination of services” (D.P.Code NO.2071.01.115.AA.0007).

9) For the purpose of calculating the interest on the entire balance amount of 40% arrears, the rate of interest admissible to the General Provident Fund account for the financial year 2004—2005 is 8%.

10) Government is keen that the arrears are paid without any delay from July, 2005. Pensioners Associations have represented that payment is often delayed as the necessary urgency is not shown by the office concerned. Government desires that the Heads of Department should take personal responsibility to ensure prompt disbursement.
