ORDER:-

In the Government Order fourth read above, orders have been issued to the effect that in respect of employees who retired between 1.1.96 and 31.3.2004, 60% of pay revision arrears calculated with interest upto 31.3.2003 shall be released in three equal instalments in the form of Small Savings Scrips either as Post Office Time Deposit for three years or National Savings Certificate VIII Issue for which option shall be obtained from the individual employees for payment of first instalment in 2004-05, second instalment in 2005-06 and the third instalment in 2006-2007.

2. In the Government Order fifth read above, orders have been issued to the effect that in respect of employees who retire from service after 1.4.2004, 60% pay revision arrears computed with interest upto 31.3.2003 shall be released in three equal instalments in the same manner as mentioned in para-1 above. However the first instalment was ordered to be released starting from the year of retirement of the employee, second and third instalments in two subsequent years.

3. In the Budget Speech 2006-2007, announcement has been made for the payment of 60% pay revision arrears in respect of employees who are in service on 1.8.2006 and those employees who retire subsequently, in three equal annual instalments in cash in the current financial year commencing from August 2006. In respect of those who have already retired, the balance instalments will be paid in cash. Accordingly, Government in supersession of the orders issued in the Government Orders fourth and fifth read above directs that the balance 60% pay revision arrears for the period from 1.1.96 to 31.3.98 along with interest upto 31.3.2003 in respect of employees who are in service on 1.8.2006 and those employees who retire subsequently shall be paid in three equal annual instalments in cash commencing from the financial year 2006-2007. The first instalment will be paid in August, 2006. In respect of employees who have already retired from service, the balance annual instalments due to such employees shall also be paid in cash.

4. The Accountant General (A&E), shall issue authorisation in respect of Government employees and Government Teachers for the payment of the balance pay revision arrears in respect of each employee (for the period from 1.1.96 to 31.3.98 along with interest upto 31.3.2003) indicating the total amount due, the first instalment amount to be paid in the current year and the balance to be paid in two subsequent instalments in the form of Statement to the Head of Departments / Heads of Offices with a copy to employees concerned immediately. However, pending receipt of authorisation from Accountant General (A&E), the Heads of Departments / Heads of Offices are requested to work out the 1/3rd amount of pay revision arrears due for payment to the employees concerned in August 2006 based on the amount of VI Pay Commission arrears indicated by the Accountant General (A&E) with interest upto 31.3.2003 in the General Provident Fund Accounts Slip for the year 2005-2006. For this purpose the employees are requested to furnish a copy of the General Provident Fund Account Statement for the year 2005-2006 to the sanctioning authorities. Based on the amount indicated in General Provident Fund Account Statement for the year 2005-2006, the Head of Departments / Heads of Offices shall issue necessary proceedings for the payment of pay revision arrears in three annual instalments and claim the first instalment amount due in the current year 2006-2007 by presenting the bill in Pay and Accounts Office/Treasury / Sub-Treasury and make payment to the employees immediately. The Head of Departments / Heads of Offices shall also maintain a suitable register with necessary particulars to make payment in the subsequent years and also to ensure the correctness of the amount sanctioned with reference to the authorisations to be sent by the Accountant General (A&E) in due course of time.

5) In the Government Orders seventh and eighth read above, orders have also been issued permitting the District Educational Officers / Inspector of Anglo Indian Schools / District Elementary Educational Officers / Assistant Elementary Educational Officers / Additional Assistant Elementary Educational Officers to transfer the 60% Pay revision arrears standing at the credit of the subscribers of the Teachers Provident Fund who retired between 1-1-96 and 31-3-2004 (both Teaching / Non-teaching staff of Aided High / Higher Secondary / Anglo Indian Schools / Panchayat Union Schools / Aided Elementary Schools/ Municipal Schools) along with interest upto 31-3-2003 to the non-interest bearing deposit head of account mentioned therein for making payment in three annual instalments.
