2. G.O.(1D).No.200,Higher Education (E1) Department, dated:28.11.11.
3. Your Letter F.No.49-4/2011/NCTE(N&S)/A45589,dated:22.12.2011.

Order:-

In the Government letter first read above, the Regional Director, Southern Regional Committee, Bangalore was informed not to give recognition for any new Colleges of Education in Tamil Nadu, since the Government viewed that no further Colleges of Education need to be sanctioned in Tamil Nadu for the year 2011-2012. Subsequently, in the Government order second read above, the ban for opening of the College of Education in the State has been lifted for the academic year 2011-2012 and 2012-2013.

2. In the letter third read above, National Council for Teacher Education has stated that on the basis of the inputs received from the State Government, Public Notice was issued by the National Council for Teacher Education in various news dailies (and placed on the website of NCTE) on 30.7.2011, wherein it was mentioned that fresh applications will not be accepted for four teacher education courses viz. D.El.Ed., B.Ed., M.Ed and Language Pandit Courses in the State of Tamil Nadu. It is further stated that since the last date of submission of on-line application for the academic session 2012-2013 was 30th September, 2011, the request of the Government cannot be considered for that academic session.

3. The Government have examined the issue of opening of the colleges of Education for the year 2013-2014 in the light of the remarks of National Council for Teacher Education. They accordingly direct that the ban lifted for starting new colleges of education in this State for the year 2012-2013 be extended to the subsequent years from 2013 -2014.

4. The Director of Collegiate Education is requested to process the application for opening of new Colleges of Education on self financing basis on merits from the year 2013-2014.
