5. Government Letter (4D)No.15, Health and Family Welfare (B2) Department, dated: 08.05.2013.

ORDER:

In the Government Order first read above, orders have been issued that the degree in Diplomate of National Board (which includes MANMS and MAMS) awarded by the National Board of Examinations, New Delhi be recognized as equivalent to MD/MS awarded by the Indian Universities for the purpose of appointment in specialized posts of Civil Assistant Surgeons/Civil Surgeons/Readers in Tamil Nadu Medical Service. It has also been ordered that the holders of DNB qualification should have at least one year teaching experience as Tutor/ Registrar/ Demonstrator or equivalent post in a recognized Medical College and for the candidates holding DNB qualifications in superspecialty subject, the training shall be for 2 years in a Medical College having recognized Post Graduate Medical Degree in the concerned specialty.

2. The Medical Council of India in its Amendment Notification, 2nd read above has further amended the qualification for awarding promotion to Medical Officers those who are having DNB qualifications. Accordingly, in the Government Order 3rd read above, orders have been issued amending the Minimum qualification for Teachers in Medical Institutions.

3. In Government Letter 5th read above, orders have been issued that the re-designation of Medical Officers with DNB Qualifications who are serving in the concerned specialty prior to the date of Notification of Medical Council of India as Assistant Professors shall be taken effect from the date of issue of order i.e. 16.5.2012. It is also confirmed that the Medical Officers with DNB qualification who are eligible for promotion can be considered for the year 2013-2014. But, their names have not been considered.

4. The Government have examined the case in detail in the light of the various amendments issued to Medical Council of India norms and decided to issue necessary clarification to the G.O.Ms.No.168, Health and Family Welfare Department, dated:16.5.2012 and with Government Letter (4D)No.15, Health and Family Welfare Department, dated:08.05.2013. Accordingly, the Government issues the following clarifications:-

- i. The DNB Degree (awarded by the National Board of Examination, New Delhi) obtained by the Medical Officers shall be considered as equivalent with MD/MS awarded by the Indian Universities from the date in which they acquired the degree and their teaching experience in the concerned specialty shall also be taken into account for giving promotion as Associate Professor, but they shall be considered for promotion for the year 2013-2014 onwards.
- ii. The Director of Medical Education is directed to send necessary proposal to the Government for giving promotion to the Medical Officers for the year 2013-2014 who have completed their DNB Degree with 5 years teaching experience in the Speciality in which they have acquired the DNB qualifications, otherwise they are eligible.
