G.O.(3D) No.4, Personnel and Administrative Reforms (N) Department, dated 17.7.2009.

ORDER:

In the Government Order cited, the Government constituted a Committee to discuss and arrive at a decision on the feasibility of combining the Preliminary Enquiry with Detailed Enquiry conducted by the Director of Vigilance and Anti-Corruption and Delegation of powers to Director of Vigilance and Anti-Corruption to conduct Detailed Enquiry upto Group 'B' Officers.

2. The Committee submitted its report to Government with the recommendations. The Government after careful examination of the report decided to accept the recommendations of the Committee. Accordingly the Government issues the following directions:

(2.1) Preliminary Enquiry and Detailed Enquiry need not be combined and the status quo may be continued.

(2.2) In respect of cases against Group C&D Officers, the Director of Vigilance and Anti-Corruption can recommend the course of action viz., Prosecution/ Departmental action without seeking orders from Vigilance Commissioner, direct to the Heads of Departments. There is no need for remittal orders by Government. However, Vigilance Commissioner and Commissioner for Administrative Reforms may be kept informed of such cases. For Group A&B officers, the present position may be continued.

(P.T.O)

(2.3) In respect of the cases against C&D Officers, if the disciplinary authority decides to drop charges, the Heads of Department will correspond with Director of Vigilance and Anti-Corruption on this and the concurrence of the Vigilance Commission for dropping action is not necessary in such cases.

(2.4) For Group A&B officers the remittal orders may be issued by Government and other existing procedures will be continued.
